RE: MML Investors Services, LLC (Respondent)
Member Firm
CRD No. 10409

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216, Respondent MML Investors Services, LLC submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent (AWC) for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described in this AWC.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents to the following findings by FINRA without admitting or denying them:

BACKGROUND

MML has been a FINRA member firm since 1982 and is headquartered in Springfield, Massachusetts. It provides investment banking, brokerage, advisory, and other financial services. The firm has 1,462 branch offices with approximately 7,800 registered persons.

In November 2016, the firm entered into an AWC (No. 2016049185701) for failing to establish and maintain a supervisory system and procedures reasonably designed to ensure that retirement plan and charitable organization customers received applicable mutual fund sales charge waivers. The firm was censured and agreed to provide approximately $1.8 million in remediation to qualified customers.¹

OVERVIEW

From January 2013 to March 2017, MML failed to reasonably supervise registered representatives' recommendations to customers to purchase particular share classes of 529 savings plans. MML did not provide adequate guidance to representatives regarding the share-class suitability factors specific to 529 plan investments when recommending 529 plans and did not provide supervisors with the information necessary to properly evaluate the suitability of 529 share-class recommendations. As a result of the foregoing, MML violated MSRB Rules G-27(a), (b) and (c).

Further, from July 2016 through October 2019, MML failed to establish and maintain a supervisory system reasonably designed to identify customers' contributions to mutual funds and 529 plans and determine whether those transactions qualified customers to take advantage of available breakpoint discounts. As a result of the foregoing, MML violated FINRA Rules 3110(a) and 2010 and MSRB Rules G-27(a) and (b).

As more fully described below, the Department of Enforcement credits MML for its extraordinary cooperation. Accordingly, this AWC includes a censure and an order for restitution and estimated interest of $744,220, but no fine for the firm's supervisory failures.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

This matter originated from MML's self-report in connection with FINRA's 529 Plan Share Class Initiative, in which FINRA member firms were encouraged to review their supervisory systems and procedures governing 529 plans and self-report potential issues to FINRA.

529 plans are tax-advantaged municipal securities that are designed to encourage saving for the future educational expenses of a designated beneficiary. 529 plans are sponsored by states, state agencies, or educational institutions. States offer 529 plans either directly, through designated broker-dealers, or both. Because 529 plans are municipal securities, sales of 529 plans are governed by the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). MSRB Rule G-27(a) requires each broker, dealer, and municipal securities dealer to supervise the conduct of its municipal securities activities to ensure compliance with MSRB rules and applicable federal securities laws and rules. MSRB Rules G-27(b) and (c) require each firm to establish and maintain a system, and to adopt, maintain, and enforce written procedures, to supervise its municipal securities activities in a manner that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with MSRB Rules and the federal securities laws.

MSRB Rule G-19 requires a broker, dealer or municipal securities dealer to have a reasonable basis to believe that a recommended transaction involving a municipal security is suitable for the customer, based on the information it obtained through reasonable diligence to ascertain the customer's investment profile. A customer's investment profile includes, among other factors, the customer's investment objectives.

Additionally, FINRA Rule 3110(a) requires that FINRA members "establish and maintain a system to supervise the activities of each associated person that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations, and with applicable FINRA rules," including with respect to the sale of mutual funds. A violation of FINRA Rule 3110 also constitutes a violation of FINRA Rule 2010, which requires member firms to "observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade" in the conduct of their business.

A. MML failed to reasonably supervise representatives' 529 plan share-class recommendations.

Shares of 529 plans are sold in different classes with different fee structures.² Class A shares typically impose a front-end sales charge but charge lower annual fees compared to other classes. C shares typically impose no front-end sales charge but impose higher annual fees than A shares. Because of their higher annual fees, C shares may be more expensive over extended holding periods and, consequently, A shares are frequently the suitable option for accounts with younger beneficiaries and longer investment horizons.³

The cost of a Class A share versus a Class C share can be meaningful for an investor. For example, applying the fee structure of one 529 plan commonly sold by MML during the relevant period, a customer who initially invested $10,000 in Class C shares and held those shares for eighteen years would pay approximately $1,300 more in fees and expenses than if the customer had invested the same amount in Class A shares. Moreover, the total value of the customer's 529 plan account for this period would be worth approximately $1,500 less than an account that instead was invested in Class A shares.⁴

The MSRB has stated that information regarding a 529 plan's designated beneficiary should be treated as information relevant to the customer's investment objectives for purposes of MSRB Rule G-19. Specifically, the MSRB has stated that information such as the age of the beneficiary and the number of years until the funds will be needed to pay the beneficiary's education expenses generally would be relevant in weighing the investment objectives of the customer.⁵

From January 2013 through March 2017, MML's systems and procedures for supervising representatives' 529 plan share-class recommendations were not reasonably designed. MML failed to provide supervisors with adequate guidance and information necessary to evaluate the suitability of representatives' 529 plan share-class recommendations, and also failed to provide guidance to representatives regarding the share-class suitability factors specific to 529 plan investments when recommending 529 plans.

² A 529 plan is structured as a trust. A customer purchases "units" in the trust. For purposes of this AWC, "share class" is used to describe the different classes of "units" purchased in 529 plans.

³ Class C shares may be suitable for accounts with younger beneficiaries based on the customers' particular facts and circumstances. Additionally, as of January 1, 2018, amendments to the United States tax code permit 529 plan customers to withdraw tax-free up to $10,000 per beneficiary, per year, for tuition in connection with enrollment or attendance at a public, private, or religious elementary or secondary school. This AWC addresses share-class related misconduct prior to January 2018.

⁴ This example assumes a 5% annual rate of return for both Class A and Class C shares, no enrollment fees or annual maintenance fees and no share-class auto-conversion feature.

⁵ Interpretation on Customer Protection Obligations Relating to the Marketing of 529 College Savings Plans (Aug. 7, 2006).

Specifically, although firm supervisors were required to review and approve all 529 plan transactions, the firm's procedures did not specifically address the relationship between account beneficiary age, the number of years until funds would be needed to pay qualified higher education expenses, and 529 plan share-class suitability. As a result, supervisors approved numerous 529 plan C share transactions without having access to or considering beneficiary age, a relevant factor in evaluating the suitability of 529 plan share-class recommendations. Moreover, until March 2017, the firm did not conduct any training for representatives regarding 529 plan share classes or otherwise provide guidance with respect to relevant suitability factors when recommending a particular 529 plan share class.

As a result, MML did not reasonably supervise 529 plan share-class recommendations and failed to identify Class C share recommendations that were inconsistent with the share-class recommendations suggested by the age of the account beneficiary. The firm has agreed to pay restitution and estimated interest of $493,291 to affected customers who incurred excess fees from Class C share purchases.

Therefore, MML violated MSRB Rule G-27(a), (b) and (c).

B. MML failed to reasonably supervise mutual fund and 529 plan transactions for available breakpoints.

Many front-end load⁶ mutual funds and 529 plans offer breakpoint discounts. Breakpoint discounts are volume discounts that reduce the front-end load charged to investors if their purchases reach certain volume thresholds. Mutual fund and 529 plan issuers set the breakpoint terms for each fund or plan, which are described in the products' prospectuses. Many issuers permit customers to aggregate purchases over time to reach a breakpoint threshold, a benefit sometimes referred to as a "rights of accumulation."⁷ Once a customer reaches a breakpoint threshold, whether through a single purchase or through rights of accumulation, the customer will be entitled to reduced sales charges for new purchases. FINRA has reminded member firms of their obligation to establish and maintain supervisory systems reasonably designed to identify and apply available breakpoint discounts, including breakpoint discounts reached through rights of accumulation.⁸

During the period July 2016 through October 2019, MML's supervisory system was not reasonably designed to identify and apply all available breakpoint discounts. MML required its registered representatives to complete a breakpoint worksheet for Class A share purchases in mutual funds or 529 plans to identify available breakpoint discounts. However, the firm did not require, and registered representatives often could not complete, breakpoint worksheets for direct or automatic contribution transactions made subsequent to an initial investment, because such contributions were sometimes made without the involvement of the registered representative.

⁶ Class A shares of mutual funds and 529 plans typically impose a front-end sales charge.

⁷ The specific criteria for breakpoints, including those related to the aggregation of new purchases with existing holdings, vary among different mutual funds and 529 plans.

⁸ See FINRA Regulatory Notice 21-07.

The firm relied on an exception report to identify missed mutual fund and 529 plan breakpoints. However, for nearly the entire relevant period, the exception report only captured transactions of $500 or more. As a result, MML failed to have a system reasonably designed to aggregate for breakpoint purposes customers' contributions to mutual funds and 529 plans if those contributions were in amounts less than $500. The firm has agreed to pay restitution and estimated interest of $250,929 to affected customers who did not receive available breakpoint discounts.

Therefore, MML violated FINRA Rules 3110(a) and 2010 and MSRB Rules G-27(a) and (b).

CREDIT FOR EXTRAORDINARY COOPERATION

In resolving this matter, FINRA has recognized Respondent's extraordinary cooperation through its voluntary participation in the 529 Plan Share Class Initiative. MML provided substantial assistance to FINRA by: (i) conducting a qualitative review of its supervision of 529 plan share-class recommendations and applicable breakpoint discounts; (ii) self-reporting, pursuant to the Initiative, areas where its supervision may not have been reasonable; (iii) providing additional information relevant to the firm's assessments of its supervisory systems to assist FINRA in understanding the conduct at issue; (iv) providing information about the corrective actions taken with respect to the supervisory violations set forth in the AWC, including enhancements to the firm's system for identifying and evaluating relevant suitability factors for 529 plan share-class recommendations and applying available breakpoint discounts; and (v) establishing a plan to efficiently identify customers for restitution and meaningfully reduce the time it would have otherwise taken for customers to receive restitution.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- a censure, and
- restitution of $617,726.28 plus interest, as described below.

With respect to the firm's supervisory failures related to representatives' 529 plan share-class recommendations, restitution is ordered to be paid to the customers listed on Attachment A to this AWC, in the amount of $404,770.44, plus interest. With respect to the firm's supervisory failures related to mutual fund and 529 plan breakpoint discounts, restitution is ordered to be paid to the customers listed on Attachment B to this AWC, in the amount of $212,955.84, plus interest. Interest on each of the above shall be calculated consistent with the rates set forth in Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 6621(a)(2). The interest applicable to the restitution amounts noted above shall be calculated based on the date that restitution amounts for each respective customer were first incurred until a calculation date, not unacceptable to FINRA staff, reasonably proximate to the actual date of payment.

A registered principal on behalf of MML shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution and prejudgment interest (separately specifying the date and amount of each paid to each customer listed on Attachment A and Attachment B) or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted by email to 529Initiative@FINRA.org from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent. The email must identify Respondent and the case number and include adequate documentation demonstrating that the payment has been provided. This proof shall be provided by email to 529Initiative@FINRA.org no later than 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC.

If for any reason MML cannot locate any customer identified on Attachment A or Attachment B after reasonable and documented efforts within 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, or such additional period agreed to by FINRA in writing, MML shall forward any undistributed restitution and interest to the appropriate escheat, unclaimed property, or abandoned property fund for the state in which the customer is last known to have resided. Respondent shall provide satisfactory proof of such action to FINRA in the manner described above, within 14 calendar days of forwarding the undistributed restitution and interest to the appropriate state authority.

Respondent also will identify customers who may incur or may continue to incur excess fees and expenses following acceptance of this AWC as the result of having purchased 529 plan Class C shares instead of Class A shares, where those Class C shares do not automatically convert to A shares under the applicable plan documents (“eligible 529 plan account holders”). Respondent will identify eligible 529 plan account holders, describe for them the difference in fees associated with Class C shares and Class A shares, along with the impact of those fees over time, and review with eligible 529 plan account holders their share class selection. Respondent will assist any eligible 529 plan account holder who requests that his/her Class C shares be converted to Class A shares, including effecting such conversion at no cost to the account holder where practical. Not later than 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, or such additional period agreed to by FINRA in writing, Respondent shall certify completion of the steps identified in this paragraph, including that conversion of share classes for any eligible 529 plan account holder who requested conversion occurred at no cost to the account holder where practical.

Upon written request showing good cause, FINRA may extend any of the procedural dates set forth above.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim an inability to pay, now or at any time after the execution of this AWC, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanction in this AWC, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

Restitution payments to customers shall be preceded or accompanied by a letter, not unacceptable to FINRA, describing the reason for the payment and the fact that the payment is being made as a result of Respondent's participation in FINRA's 529 Plan Share Class Initiative.

The sanctions imposed in this AWC shall be effective on a date set by FINRA.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a complaint issued specifying the allegations against it;
- B. To be notified of the complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made, and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the NAC and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs (ODA), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and
- C. If accepted:
 - 1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future action brought by FINRA or any other regulator against Respondent;
 - 2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
 - 3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and its subject matter in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 - 4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's testimonial obligations or right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.
- D. Respondent may attach a corrective action statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. Respondent understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this statement. This statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA.

The undersigned, on behalf of Respondent, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on Respondent's behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that Respondent has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth in this AWC and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a complaint, has been made to induce Respondent to submit this AWC.
